The Senior Class
Baldwin High School
Baldwin, New York

A spectrum of contrast . . . the athletic field and the classroom—the laboratory and the cafeteria—the empty halls and the commons—the library and the gymnasium. Each has its own atmosphere, its own temperament, and these atmospheres and temperaments blend, mix and contrast. The single student and the club—the fresh, new ideas and the mellowed, more matured ones—the exuberant sophomore and the knowledgeable senior —all of these are found in a high school. Now let us look back over this year, 1965, at Baldwin Senior High School, let us look back and view these scenes, and let us see the contrasts in them.

DEDICATION

The Class of 1965 is deeply grateful to Miss Ethel T. Kloberg for her assistance in making this an enjoyable and memorable year. In her first year as Dean of Students, Miss Kloberg has worked continually for the student body of Baldwin High School, improving existing programs and, in many cases, initiating new ideas. Her efforts have brought about improved efficiency in school operation and have opened up new areas of student activity.

The Class of 1965 is genuinely appreciative of the work Miss Kloberg has done in its behalf. She has understood its desires for the senior trip, a prom held out of the school, and the continued use of caps and gowns at graduation. Miss Kloberg has devoted much time and energy to assisting our class council and advisors in achieving these goals. Without her continued efforts and unfailing support, these privileges might never have been granted, and the class would perhaps have missed many of the wonderful times it enjoyed this year.

In the years that Miss Kloberg has been a part of Baldwin High School, she has always worked toward the "pursuit of excellence." As chairman of the Girls' Physical Education Department, she developed an outstanding program. Girls' Week, which Miss Kloberg introduced to Baldwin, was honored in 1954 by being presented the highest award accorded public schools by the Freedom Foundation. In 1955 Miss Kloberg received the Freedom Foundation Gold Medal for "meritorious service to the youth of America." As Dean of Students, she has continued to serve the student body of Baldwin High School with dedication. From her we have learned the importance of respect for our school, for our classmates, and, above all, for ourselves.

In gratitude for the assistance she has given us, in appreciation for her many years of service to the youth of Baldwin, and with the confidence that she will continue her fine work, the Class of 1965 dedicates this yearbook to Miss Ethel T. Kloberg.

Giving a lecture or doing an experiment—dictating a letter or playing a piano—directing a play or teaching a class—reading for research or grading papers—these are but a few of the contrasts in the day of a teacher.

District Administration

The District Administration is primarily occupied with supervising the educational programs of the Baldwin Public Schools. The Administrators must not only remain abreast of the current trends in education and the needs of the community, but they are also involved with the practical side of running a large school system: coping with an increasing enrollment. The excellence of our school system is largely due to the dedicated work of the District Administration.

High School

Keeping our school of over 1,800 students and 100 teachers operating smoothly and efficiently is a mammoth responsibility which rests on the shoulders of the high school administration.

The administrators must keep in touch with the school's needs, immediate and future, in both the areas of personnel and facilities. In addition to the school's own problems and programs, there are policies of the school district and problems in the community which demand the administration's attention.

The responsibilities of a high school administration are many and complex, but they are nevertheless skillfully and effectively fulfilled by the administrators of Baldwin High School.

MISS ETHEL T. KLOBERG
Dean of Students

An invitation to DOSO does not always mean disciplinary measures. Frequently it is a chance to discuss student activities or privileges and a time for questions, answers, and suggestions.

Guidance

Just keeping each student's school record up-to-date requires hours of work by patient guidance counselors. But the responsibilities of the Guidance Department do not end here. There are always programs to be juggled in an attempt to fit all the desired courses and a conveniently situated lunch period into one school day. In addition, there are the endless student and parent conferences and the equally endless piles of college applications and test scores to contend with. In the Guidance Department each school day is more than adequately filled with the great amount of work involved in guiding every student as smoothly as possible through his entire high school career.

English

Once again the English Department has not been devoid of changes. Because of a larger number of students, lecture programs are held in the auditorium and the team-teaching staff has been expanded to six teachers. The newest innovation is the expression of the department's belief in the capabilities of this year's seniors by offering a number of elective courses including Tragedy, Drama, and The American Novel. The experiment was very successful and will probably be continued in the future.

General Organization

The General Organization represents the student body in the government of the school. This year we have been very fortunate to have had a particularly active G. O. One of their activities was the organization of the Homeroom Volleyball Tournament that did much to heighten school spirit.

The holder of a G. O. card is entitled to ticket price reductions at sports events such as football and basketball games and wrestling matches. He may also take advantage of the spectator bus service provided to away athletic events.

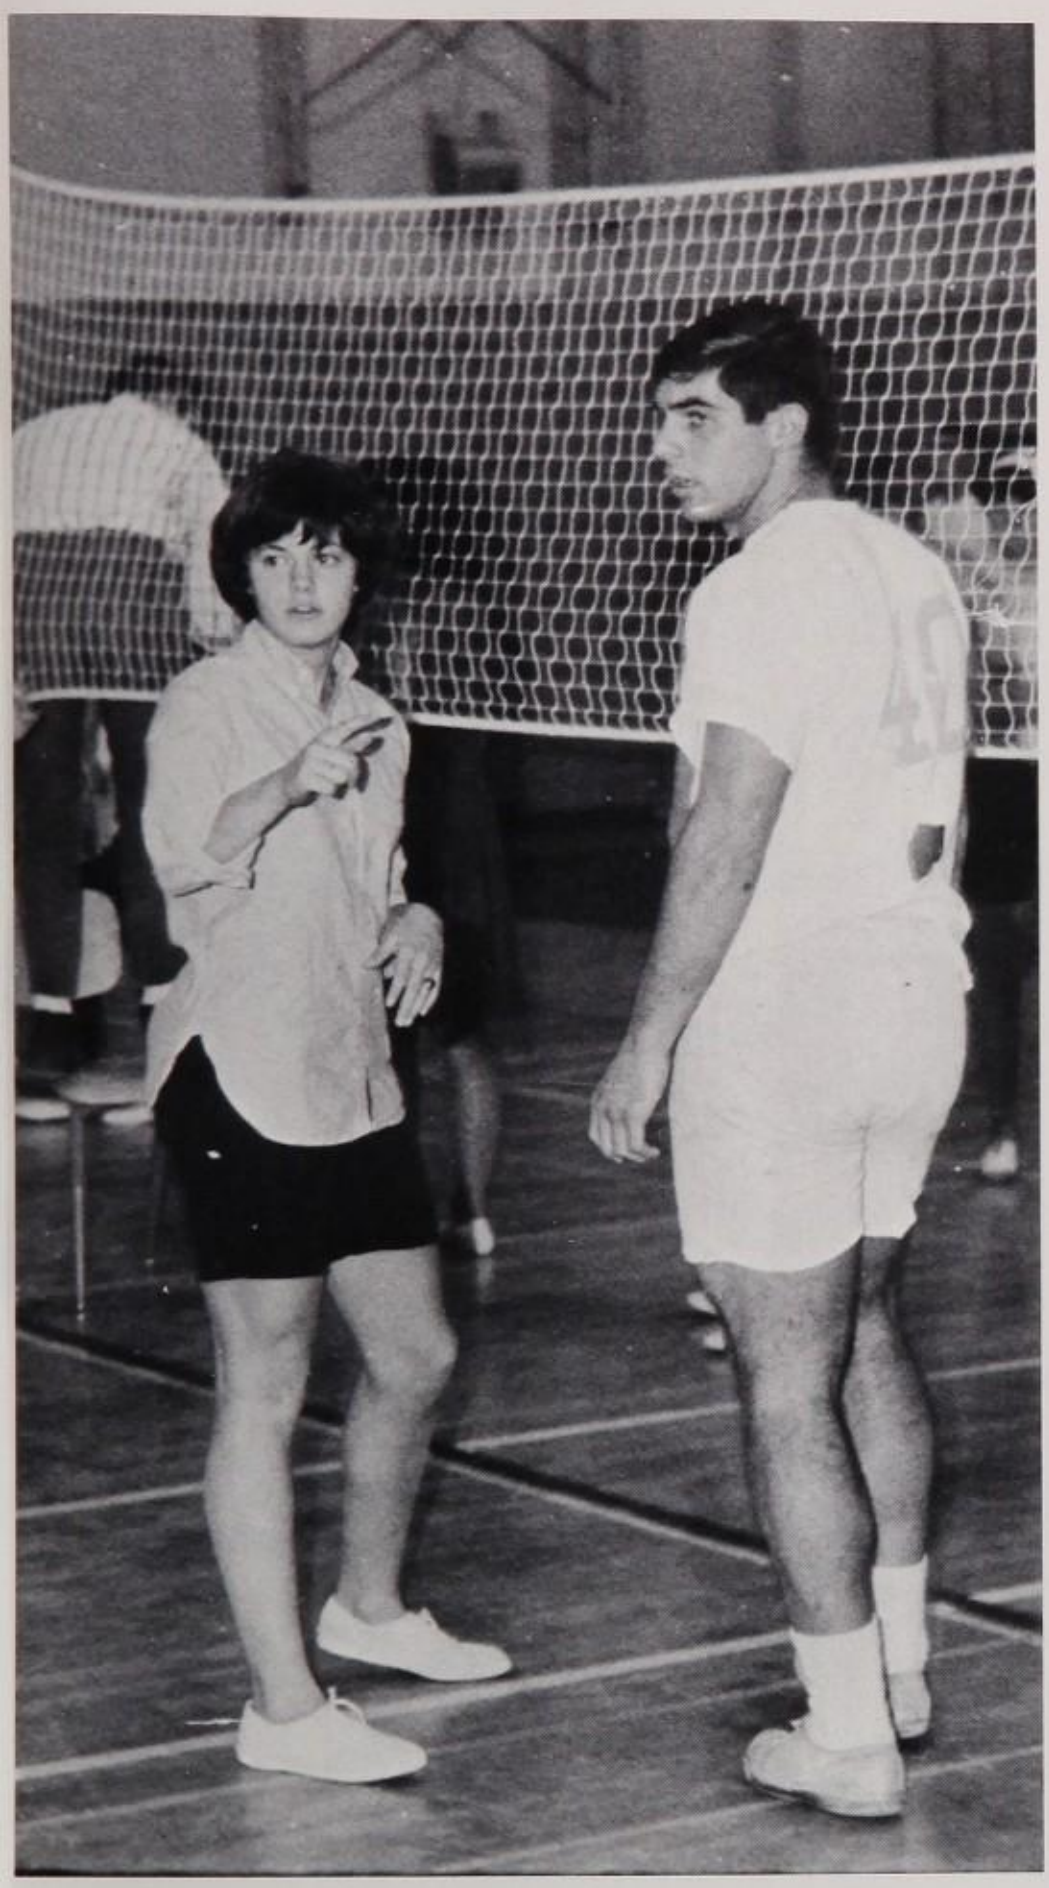
A Council member is always happy to sell a G.O. card.

G.O. Officers: Bobby Lansing, secretary; Allen Gaskell, president; Bill Picchioni, vice-president; and Tedd Evans, treasurer.

Plans



Bobby Lansing and Joe Tomaselli wait for the next serve at the finals of the Homeroom Volleyball Tournament.

Activities

To dispel any misconceptions, the General Organization is not entirely sports-oriented. The musical presented by the Masque in the spring, The Boyfriend, was produced under the sponsorship of the G. O. They also organized dances and supervised the annual Spring Picnic. Under the leadership of the advisor, Mr. Joyce, the General Organization has been an effective link between the administration and the students in matters regarding the government of the school.

Hanging posters is a common task of G. O. Council members.

Mr. Joyce, advisor, and Allen discuss future plans.

President Barbara Lee presents torch
to new member, Ellen Gline, at the December induction.

The members of the Baldwin Chapter of the National Honor Society are selected on the basis of their leadership, character, scholarship, and service, and after careful consideration. This year's officers were Barbara Lee, president; Nancy Hertz, vice-president; Susan Bram, secretary; and Kenneth Pavel, treasurer. Programs were sold at the football games in order to raise money for the December and June inductions. The Home Economics Lounge was, for the first half of the year, the scene of studying and exciting bridge games for the members. Honor Society serves the school by keeping the Honor Roll up to date, and by tutoring fellow students.

Nick Rabkin, president, and Mrs. MacLaury, advisor, were pleased with publicity for the Student-Faculty basketball game.

Walk Together . . .

This year, Baldwin's chapter of American Field Service has been able to increase school and community interest in working for international understanding. The community will long remember Graham Hope, the exchange student from the Republic of South Africa, who lived for the year with Howard Adler, a Baldwin senior. Graham's easy-going manner and brilliant smile made him one of the best liked students at Baldwin this year. Nancy Hertz was Baldwin's A.F.S. returnee, having spent last summer living with a Finnish family.

Under the leadership of Nick Rabkin and advisor Mrs. MacLaury, several activities were successfully undertaken. Assembly programs acquainted students with life in other countries, and the A.F.S. weekend in February brought twelve foreign students to Baldwin. The Student-Faculty Basketball Game was enjoyed by everyone, and the Work Day in April proved that work could be fun as well as profitable. The club worked always with the A.F.S. motto in mind—"Walk together, talk together, all ye peoples of the earth, for then and only then shall ye have peace."

Talk Together

Graham Hope, our South African student, Nancy Hertz, Baldwin's returnee from Finland, and Howard Adler, Graham's American brother, discuss future plans.

Mindy Duitz and Arlene Rosenthal put out the welcome mat for visiting exchange students.

The Audio-Visual Squad, under the leadership of Mr. Douglas Gomez, is skilled in the operation of the many types of audio-visual equipment. The services performed by the squad are invaluable. Bring your own popcorn.

YOUTH CENTER COUNCIL: M. Niego, R. Goldstein, M. Miller, R. Dabby, K. Scott, P. Chernock.

Council Plans Youth Centers

Where are all the Baldwinites after Friday night sports events? At the Youth Centers, of course. The Council, branch of the General Organization, plans these dances in addition to other recreational activities. The Council also provides the plans for the annual Easter Egg Hunt, which is enjoyed by so many children.

Council members Ramsey Dabby, Wendy Kapilow, and Ken Pavel view the Red Cross membership card, a best seller this year.

Red Cross Funds Aid Hospitals

The funds collected at the annual Red Cross drive are used at Veterans' Hospitals, children's wards, and at local hospitals. The Council, under the direction of Miss Helen Gould, was very pleased with the student participation in this year's drive.

All the News That Fits - They Print

Our busy reporters of the GOLDEN WAVE have been very active this year. Under the supervision of Mr. Stephen Sparacio, the students have been trying to stimulate more class interest by sponsoring student polls. They made a survey of the most popular career talks, and there is a write-up on a new career in each issue.

The students go to many press conferences, such as the Herald Tribune Conference and the Columbia Press Conference. The WAVE has been the winner of the Freedoms Foundation Award, Columbia Scolastic Press Association Cartoon Contest, Newsday News Trophy, and L. I. Press News Trophy.

L. Bender, C. Sternheim, and A. Giagni fold newspapers for delivery.

Quill and Scroll, the National Journalism Honor Society, is comprised primarily of members of last year's journalism class. It has been the role of this club to prepare the Journalism Review Booklet for incoming members of the journalism class.

ANALECTA STAFF: First Row: J. Marcus, J. Sundell, H. Adler. Second Row: T. Sicker, S. Bram, B. Lee.

Analecta Heads Best Seller List

The Analecta, Baldwin's fine literary magazine, strives to develop creative writing ability among the students. The editorial staff encourages all potential writers to contribute short stories, poems, essays, and art work to the annual production of the magazine. Advised by Mr. Van Buren and under the editorship of Barbara Lee, the Analecta will surely head the best seller list.

All Faiths Meet in Harmony

The Inter-Faith Study Council is a new club at Baldwin this year. The goal of this group, headed by Miss Bernice Bohlmann and Mr. Elmer Ruhnke, is to discuss and try to understand as many religions as possible.

INTER-FAITH COUNCIL: First Row: Miss Bohlmann, S. Miller, J. Shaw, R. Goodstein, B. Larson, K. Anttila. Second Row: A. Gendler, C. Price, L. Nevin, S. Amira, H. Morris, K. Scali, S. Polluk, H. The popular Book Discussion Club meets to review a book.

Books Bring New Horizons

The Book Discussion Club, advised by Mrs. Judith Cohen and Miss Mia Honkanen, meets during the Wednesday activity period. At each session this group discusses various books in which its members have a particular interest. Through these discussions new ideas and places become vivid.

B. Krivin, N. Hertz, R. Feinstein, B. Levine anxiously await the opening bid.

Did You Say Six No Trump?

Bridge appears to be a very popular pastime at Baldwin this year. The Bridge Club members zealously pursue their favorite game during activity period, and any other spare minute, under the guidance of Mrs. Gantcher.

L. Korn, B. Gebert, J. Schneider, J. Frankenberg, and C. Market demonstrate their mathematical dexterity.

Mathletes Match Minds in Meets

The requirements for membership in Mathletes are a minimum of 90% on all Math Regents exams and recommendations from teachers. The Mathletes, an interschool activity under the leadership of Bob Gebert and Mr. Reed, test their wits against many other schools each year.

This year's Advanced French Club is bigger and more active than ever. Meeting in the auditorium during activity period, the club is supervised by Mr. Silberman and Miss Landes. The club, conducted by Carol Berns as President, sees many educational films concerned with French culture. They also put on plays and sing songs in French.

The Elementary French Club also meets with the advanced club. Mrs. Stein and Miss Austin are the supervisors, and the club puts out a French newspaper.

Wir Sprechen Deutsch

Under the leadership of Steve Assa and advisor Mr. Hayn, the German Club has been active this year. During Thanksgiving vacation the members went to New York City to see a play and at Christmas they were invited to parties at other schools. Membership is for those presently studying German and those who express an interest in the language.

RUSSIAN CLUB. First Row: B. Levine, M. Fine, H. Krein, R. Chang. Second Row: A. Rosenthal, E. Rappaport, A. Rand, S. Tamber, S. Bram, S. Miller, Mr. Olevnick, J. Marcus, P. Karpel, M. Dorsey, N. Nixon, C. Fusco, S. Pattyson, B. Becker.

Tym Uzyraem Pycckuu

The Russian Club, under the iron hands of Margie Fine and Mr. Olevnick, has traditionally compulsory membership for Russian I and II classes. Pounding their shoes is not their only activity, as the club has been to New York City several times to see Russian films and also had a party during Christmas.

The almost one hundred members of the Future Teachers of America show that teaching is favored highly by many students as a future profession. The president, Kathleen McKay, states the purpose as "to learn about the teaching profession, its opportunities, responsibilities, and its important role in our democracy."

Radio Hams Listen to the World

The ham radio fan may not only enjoy having mechanical skill, but can also develop radio contacts with people throughout the United States and the world, broadening his horizons. With the guidance of Mr. Mauer, those boys interested may obtain their Amateur Radio Operator's License and thus travel all over the world with a radio.

Activity Period Clubs Add Spice to School Life

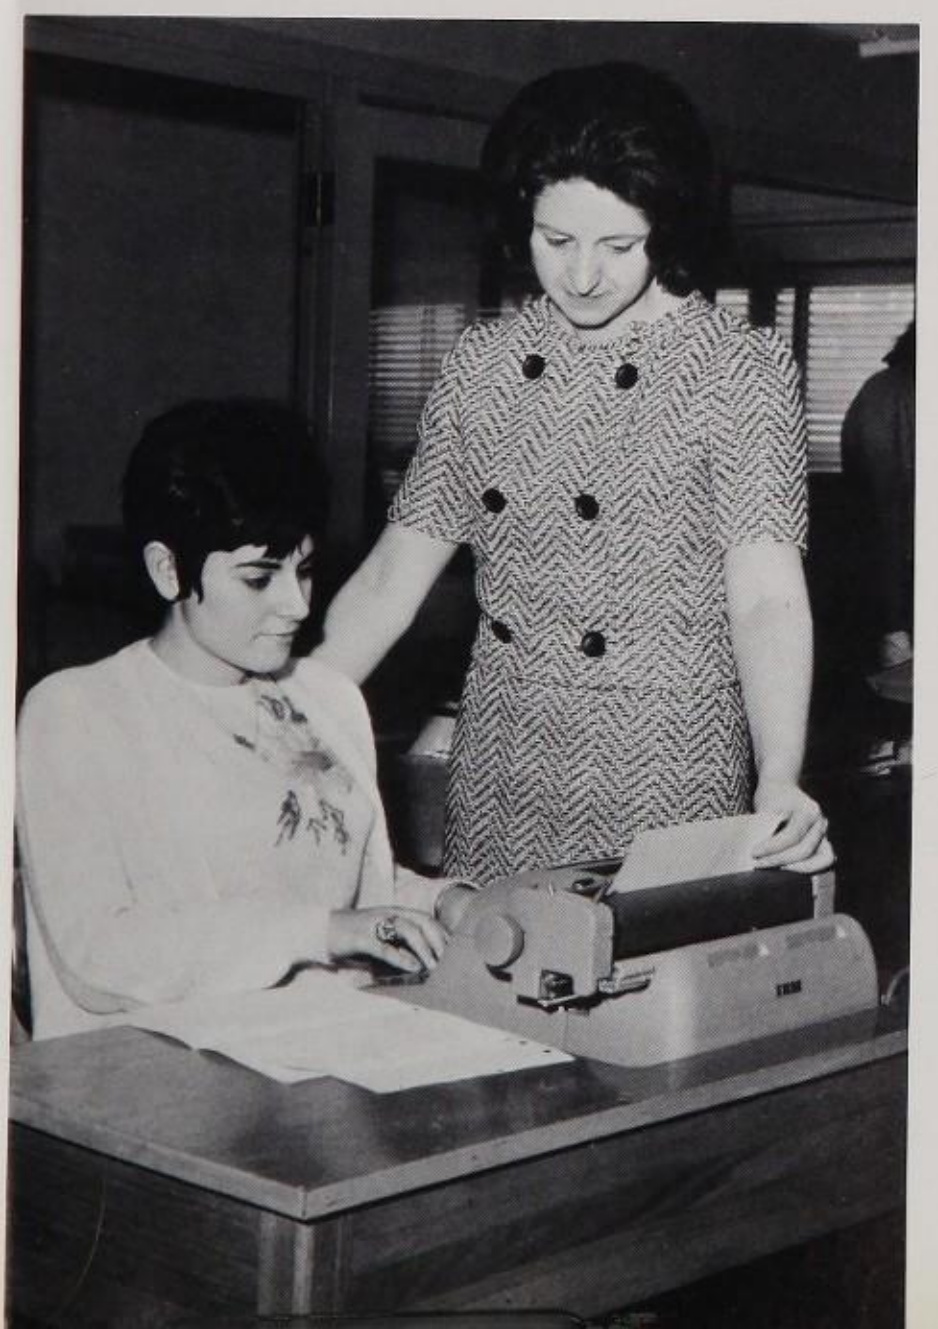
The scientifically minded worked on physics projects under the direction of Mr. Staudte.

An innovation in school life this year was the Wednesday Activity Period, during which any club was able to meet. Because of the convenience of a weekly club period during school time, many new groups were formed and older clubs found that memberships grew enormously. Service squads, language clubs, the book discussion club, science squads, business and art clubs, a beauty culture group, and even a cooking class for boys—all were able to meet during school time. The wide variety of groups clearly showed the marked contrast in the range of interests of Baldwin High students.

Foreign languages can be fun! These French students turned actors and actresses seem to be enjoying the play as much as the audience did.

"Beauty is as beauty does" says Miss Balfour to an attentive audience at the Beauty Culture Class.

Beauty and Business Show Varied Interests



Miss Ultsch commends this student's progress at a session of the Office Practice Lab.

Efficient typing needs frequent practice, and these students, under Mrs. Axelrod's direction, receive ample time at the Typing Club.

French Linguists Form Honor Society

The eight members of the French Honor Society have shown that they are true linguists in their field. Among the requirements, a member must be a fourth year French student with almost all French grades as "A," and have all other course averages at least a "B" with no more than one "C." The group, under the direction of Mr. Silberman, recenlty spent a day in New York City immersed in the culture of France.

"The Boy Friend"

A Musical Comedy Hit!

Baldwin's first entry in the field of musical comedy, the British spoof ofthe Roaring 20's called "The Boy Friend," drew large audiences and enthusiastic responses at its production in March .Under the general direction of Mr. Alfred Schimmel, the show presented a fast-moving, light-hearted story of some "Perfect Young Ladies" in a girls' boarding school where their sole interest seems to be finding "that certain thing called The Boy Friend" rather than learning much about being sophisticated young ladies. Sentimental ballads, satiric tangoes, heel-raising Charlestons and a variey of flashy song-and-dance production numbers called on all the talents of the cast and demanded long hours of rehearsal. Assisting Mr. Schimmel in the production were Mr. Knab in musical direction, Mr. Reynolds and Miss Glass in vocal music and piano accompaniment, Mrs. Van Tassel in dance numbers, and Mrs. Elder in costumes. Among the headliners in the cast were Sally Calder as "Polly Browne," Fred Coleman as her boyfriend "Tony," Lynne Eichell as "madcap Maisie," Tony Falcone as her boyfriend "Bobby Van Heusen," Sue Winter as the lively "Dulcie" and Jay Greenstein as a sprightly, slightly "older" Lord Brockhurst. Livening things up from the orchestra pit were the "Baldwin Bearcats," a 1920's-style, striped-blazered band under the direction of Mr. Knab. Let's hope the "Boy Friend" is only the first of Baldwin's musical comedies!

Fred Coleman, as "Tony," delivers a package to "Polly Browne," played by Sally Calder.

Members of the band work hard in the foreground while boyfriends R. Anderson, E. Bernstein, and K. Rahtz do a jazzy Charleston with B. Dank, S. Winter, and L. Kanfer. S. Calder and L. Eichell watch from the sidelines.

Mr. Knab and the "Bearcats" take a break from their own chores to enjoy the action on stage.

These are the flappers who are looking for "The Boy Friend"—B. Dank, S. Winter, S. Calder, L. Kanfer, and L. Eichell.

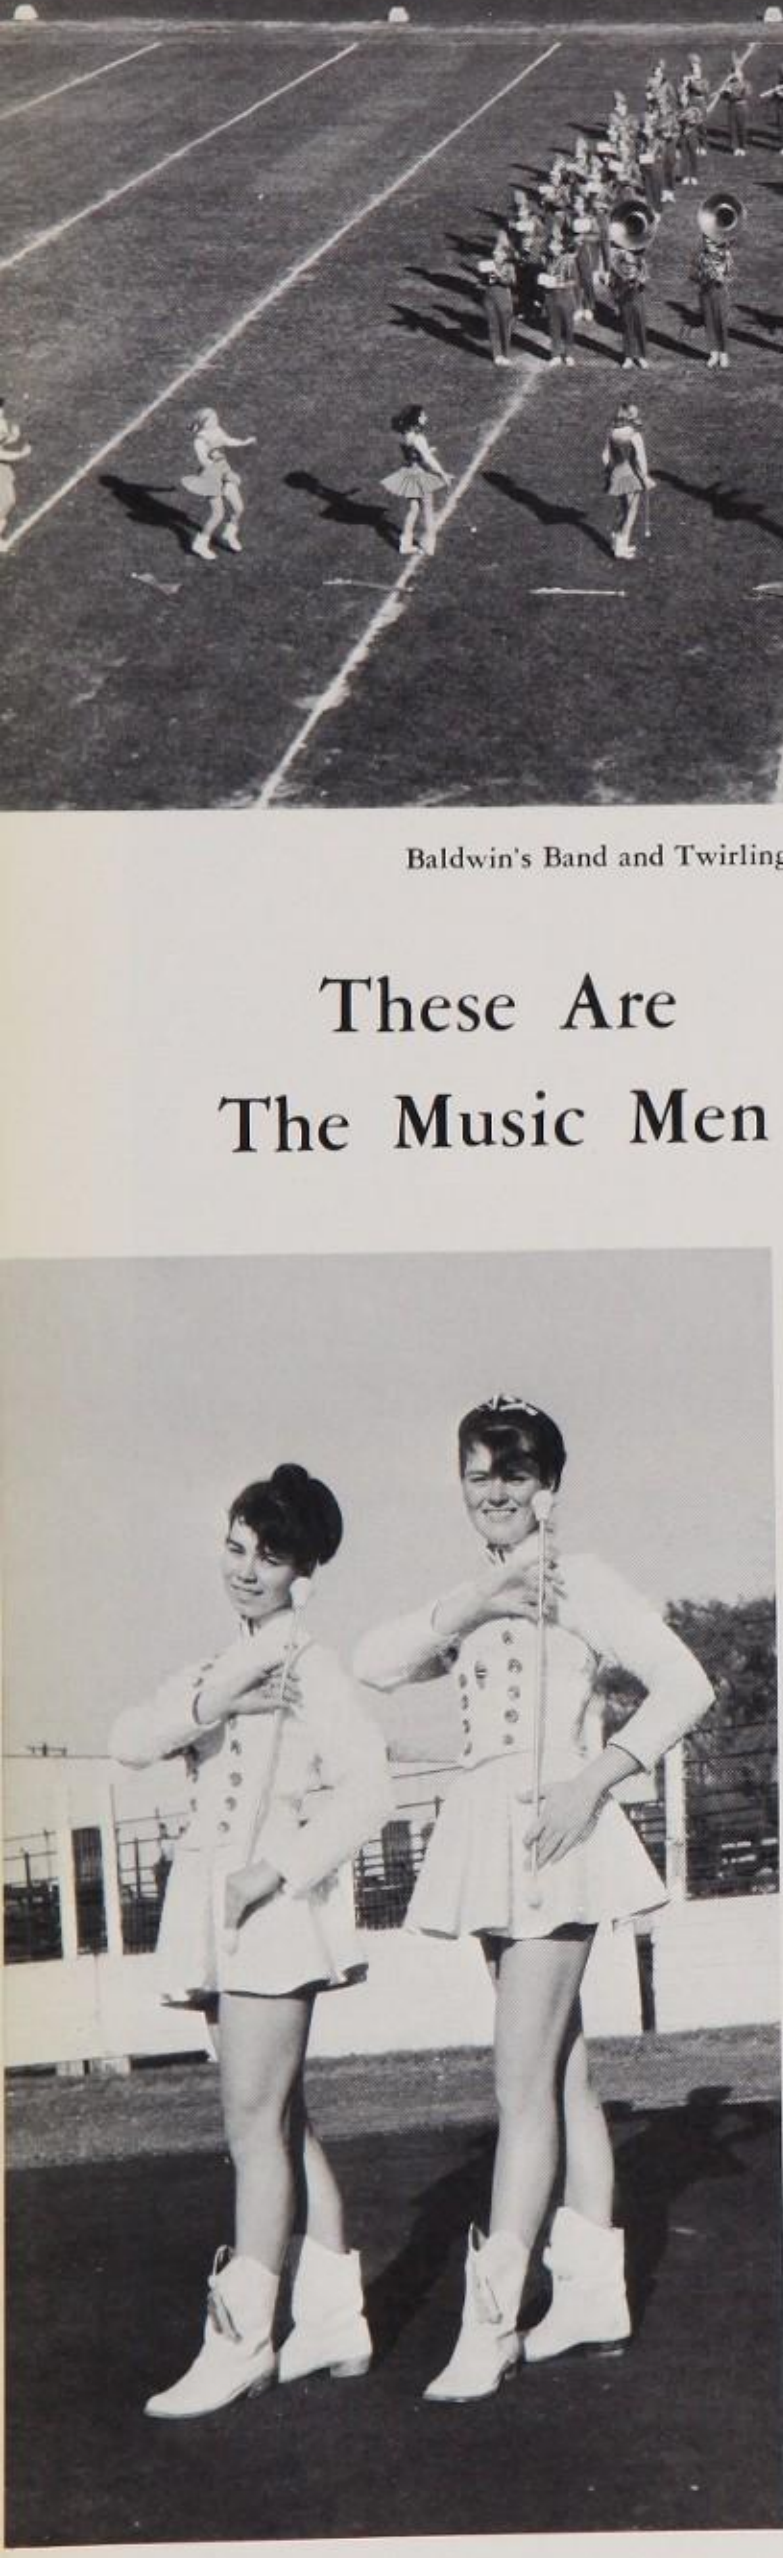
These Are The Music Men

Under the able direction of Mr. Richard Knab, the Baldwin High School Marching Band heralded the opening of each football game. The Band's highly imaginative half-time shows added greatly to the excitement of every game.



Rene Sigillo, Head Twirler, and Dorothy Ballweg, Drum Majorette, led the band during the fall season.

Ensemble, Band, and Orchestra Perform at Concerts

The Senior Orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Rudolph Bosakowski, performs at assemblies, the Annual December Holiday Pageant, the Winter Formal Concert, and the Spring Concert. This year, the concert mistress is Deborah Jones.

Mr. North often works harder conducting than members of the wind ensemble.

The Wind Ensemble is comprised of selected talented players from the larger Senior Band. Under the direction of Music Department Chairman, Mr. North, members of the Wind Ensemble rehearse and perform a variety of selections of an often difficult and advanced level for presentation at the Formal Concert in March. The augmented Repertory Band performs at the Spring Concert.

To Sing!

The Motet Choir, being led by that great director, Mr. Reynolds, rehearses for the Formal Concert.

The Choir, Choraliers, and the Motet Choir are Baldwin's three formal singing groups, each of which performs in the three yearly concerts given by the music department. The Christmas Concert features melodies appropriate to the holiday season; the Formal Concert presents numbers of a more formal, classical or artistic nature, while the Spring Concert gives vent to songs of a lighter vein such as the music of the popular movie "Mary Poppins" and Lionel Bart's smash Broadway musical "Oliver."

Sophomores Organize Council

This year the Sophomore Class Council, under the able leadership of class president John Tam who was assisted by Bonnie Palmer, vice-president; Donna Altman, secretary; and Chris Rice, treasurer; staged a gala sophomore class dance for the spring. Also, under the direction and assistance of advisor Mr. Thomas Dellaero, the spring agenda included a variety show. It was the firt time a sophomore class had attempted such a production. This year's council and officers have been extremely successful in helping the Class of '67 to have an active, profitable, and, above all, enjoyable sophomore year.

The junior Class Council, advised by Miss Ultsch and Mr. Zakoski, was responsible for a very successful junior year for the Class of '66. Serving as president this year was Carol DiNapoli. Fred Dabby was vice president; Ruth Beyer was treasurer; Toni Onorato was secretary. The first activity planned was the Junior Prom, "Dancing in the Streets," held during the Christmas holidays. The Ring Dance was the next major event; held during the month of March, it too was a huge success. All juniors should be proud of the job which their representatives have done this year.

Juniors Go "Dancing in the Streets"

The Junior Prom was held during the Christmas holiday season, on December 26, 1964. Juniors sponsored the dance but seniors and sophomores also attended. The theme of the dance was "Dancing in the Streets." Guests enjoyed refreshments and entertainment in addition to dancing all night to the band, "The Disciples."

Blame Them

Yes, blame us, but also give us a little credit. There are just so many hours in a day. However, many a staff member has spent a thirty-hour-day rushing to meet those deadlines that seem to materialize out of thin air. Making page lay-outs, fitting picture appointments into a tight schedule, and hunting for students and teachers to obtain necessary information have been a part of every staff member's job. But in spite of all the work, or because of it, being on the staff has been fun. And our reward is having made a NEXUS of which the class of 1965 can be proud, we hope!

Boys' Sports Editor, J. Diskin, discusses sports copy with typist Cindy Graham.

Running for a touchdown or warming the bench—shooting the all-important basket or battling for the lacrosse ball—doing a shoulder stand or striking out—these are the peaks and the low points, the ups and the downs, the contrasts in our sports.

Although the record book showed Baldwin in the loss column after each of this year's games, it could not tell the story of the long hours and hard work of the coaches and players.

Coaches Cesareo and Friedel worked tirelessly and the gridmen gave their all. Quarterback Mike Powell, fullback Joe Tomaselli, and linemen Roger Vielbig and Warren Pallatto sparked the team in many drives throughout the season.

Tennis

Under the inspiring guidance of Mr. Maurice McNeill, our varsity tennis team once again had a winning season—eight wins and seven losses. Included in the ranks of this year's tennis team was Graham Hope, our exchange student from the Republic of South Africa.

CHEERLEADERS

The Baldwin High School Cheerleaders led the spectators in cheering at this year's varsity and junior varsity football and basketball events. The girls were also responsible for keeping the crowds under control. Miss Janice Ultsch, the squad's advisor ,helped the girls perfect the routine cheers and learn new ones. Diane Vinas, the squad's mascot, added pep and sparkle to the already enthusiastic cheerleading squad.

In the words of Mr. A. McCrae, "The team had a great season." The Baldwin Varsity Basketball Squad was defeated only three times in eighteen games during the regular season. The cagers tied Hempstead for first place in the Section Two Standings, and placed third in the county.

This year's team also won the Christmas Tournament by defeating St. Agnes in one of the most exciting games of the year. Rich Wright, co-captain of the Baldwin squad, was chosen most valuable player of the tournament. Both Rich and George had excellent game averages, Rich scoring 22.5 a game and George 18.0.

Although the Varsity Wrestling Team did not score as highly in league competition as had been hoped, a number of individuals distinguished themselves. Larry DiGarbo, Bob Schoen, and Joe DiGarbo placed in the Section I Tournament, thus qualifying for the Counties'. Larry won third place in the County Championships.

The wrestling coaches, Mr. Joe Friedel and Mr. Bob Schugman, stressed hard work, little food, and above all, desire—the desire to win. Each wrestler takes a great deal from a coach like Mr. Friedel and leaves him only the satisfaction of knowing that the boys he has coached are men when they leave the Wrestling Team.

Soccermen Meet Tough Competition

VARSITY SOCCER. Kneeling: J. McGrath, A. Hazen, C. Lange, R. Pike, Co-captain K. Pavel, Co-captain J. DiGarbo, P. Yost, C. Harris, C. Gee, L. Chichester. Standing: K. Thompson, F. Bosh, B. Lott, G. Breitwiser, J. Brown, P. McCauly, L. DiGarbo, B. Ammann, D. Burns, D. Cramer, V. Famularo.

Although the Soccermen, under the coaching of Mr. K. Thompson, displayed fine ball control and a good defense, its opponents were always loaded with power. One reason for the team's disappointing showing was that the soccer played in the South Shore Division II was the toughest ever, and probably the best in New York. The soccer team, however, was never overwhelmed, but lost heartbreakers by one or two goals.

Outstanding players were Joe Di Garbo, Ken Pavel, Chris Gee, and goalie John McCauley.

Keglers Have Winning Season

The Baldwin Bowling Team finished the year third in the South Shore. Mr. Landers, the team's coach, expressed satisfaction with all the boys on the team. B. Koste and P. Bolger had averages in the 180's, while A. Klein's and B. Lott's were in the 170's.

Under the guidance of Mr. Sawyers and Mr. Mines, the Baldwin Rifle Team finished in first place in the South Shore Central Division. This was the third consecutive year that Baldwin captured the division title, but this year the honors had to be shared with Uniondale.

The sharpshooters finished the season with a fine 11-1 record, losing only to Uniondale in a shoot-off. This year the team had tri-captains: J. Meincke, P. Ridenour, and G .Diemer, who set a new Long Island record of 97 bullseyes out of a possible 100 in the standing position.

Rich Reese and Jeff Kopf practice for the 120 yard hurdles.

This year's track team, under the able coaching of Mr. DiLena and Mr. Landers, had a fine winning season. In one of their outstanding meets, they downed East Meadow by a substantial margin.

Among those turning in star performances were Carl Lange in the one-quarter, Al Gaskell in the one-half, and Ron Dilge in the one-hundred and two-twenty yard sprints. Captains of the team were Bruce Connors and Allen Gaskell.

Under the direction of Mr. Ray Zoellner, the Baldwin Cross-Country Team won six meets in league competition in the South Shore Division A. Captain Tom Greene and Junior Steve Bergkamp were two of the team's most outstanding runners.

Each boy on the Cross-Country Team runs two and one-half miles. The first five boys crossing the finish line contribute to the team score.

Lacrosse

Once again, the Baldwin Stickmen faced a rugged season, meeting tough competition in every game. According to Coach Cesareo, the start was slow, but the improvement was evident. Outstanding players on this year's lacrosse team were attackman Bob Golambus, middie Fred Coleman, and goalie Larry Gross, who in one fantastic game against Freeport made seventeen saves.

Leader Corps Reorganizes

With the assistance of Mr. Steve Golder, advisor, the officers of the Boys' Leader Corps did a great deal of reorganization this past year. Presidnet Jack Parry, Vice-President Lou Galli, Treasurer Steve Hagstrand, and Secretary Gary Thayer all worked very hard planning activities and tried to make the existence of the Leaders' Corps worthwhile. Mr. Golder also put a great deal of energy into a trip to West Point, which the seniors in the Leaders Corps planned.

Varsity Club Holds First Social Event

This year's Varsity Club was under the joint direction of Mr. J. Friedel and Mr. A. VanBuren. The officers were Joe Tomaselli, Pres., Bob Dolphin, Vice Pres., Ken Pavel, Treas., Paul Sacco, Sec., and Warren Pallatto, Sergeant-at-Arms. One of the most successful undertakings of the Varsity Club was the sale of basketball pins during the basketball season. The Club also held a dance in the Spring, "Bermuda Holiday," which was highly successful.

The Girls' Athletic Association, under the direction of Miss Marie Jensen and President Pat Pearce, has again sponsored a full program of events this year. The G.A.A.'s Leader-Service Induction took place during the fall, and at this time new members were admitted into the two organizations. In November the G.A.A. held its annual Carnival. What a success! Everyone had fun and a sizable profit was made from the many games, the magic show, and the auction.

April brought the most exciting activity of the year, Girls' Week. Each girl worked hard for the success of the Blue or the Gold, and win or lose, the rewards were many.

The final event that the G.A.A. sponsored was "Farewell to Seniors." The Babe Ruth award was presented to the girl who was elected the most athletic, and a "Sports Queen" was selected. In addition, several G.A.A. scholarships were awarded. At the end of the program the faculty, parents, and underclassmen bid farewell to the departing senior girls in a moving ceremony.

Leader Corps Assists in Classes

Under the leadership of President Lenora Bell and advisor Miss Marie Jensen the girls of the Leader Corps have once again aided the Physical Education Department in various aspects of the curriculum. They help their instructors in classes and in after-school activities, and several of the girls acted as Sophomore "mothers" until the November induction. Leaders participate actively in most of the events sponsored by the G.A.A. The Juniors have their own personal project, and will not soon forget the joyous moments spent selling pretzels in the tropical Baldwin weather.

Service Club Assists P.E. Office

Under the leadership of President Jane Aitken and advisor Mrs. Janice Mauro, the Service Club has provided assistance to the Physical Education Department in many ways. The girls are assigned to service periods during which they mark attendance, type letters, and take on any job which presents itself. They participate in G.A.A. activities, helping in innumerable ways to lessen the burdens of instructors. The Juniors had their opportunity for excitement when they sold candy to raise money for their jackets. The girls who know that it is "better to serve" provide continuous and invaluable aid to the Department and to the girls themselves.

Hockey Champs Score First Again

The Varsity Hockey Team, coached by Miss Marie Jensen, again took the Long Island Girls' Association Championship. The team reached the finals in the competition by winning all of its games during a sportsday held in Baldwin.

Captained by Lenora (Leo) Bell and Pat Pearce, the team ended the season with a fine record of five wins, three losses, and two ties. The most exciting games were the traditional encounters with Clarke, St. Mary's Academy, and Locust Valley Friends' Academy.

Rackettes Score in Sportsday

Eight girls wielded the racket this fall to represent Baldwin in a program of interscholastic varsity tennis. Coached by Miss Ina Fletcher, the team enjoyed a successful season. The girls competed in a Sportsday at Oceanside with six other teams, and placed third. The varsity team members this year were Carol Brand, Sue Gerkin, Gail Gross, Marti Gross, Carol Kydd, Sue Lubkemann, Linda Strong, and Nora Yudashkin.

Birdwatchers Place First

This year's Badminton Club was one of the most successful in recent years. Under the coaching of Mrs. Janice Mauro the varsity badminton team enjoyed a victorious season. At the L.I.G.A. Sportsday Baldwin took first place, winning the Section II Division Championship. In the L.I.G.A. Final Sportsday the girls went on to capture third place. The varsity team members were Cathy Allen, Karen Friberg, Nancy Gawlowicz, Kathy Heffernan, Judy Kurtz, Stephanie Mancuso, Sharon Pattyson, and Pat Reed.

Spike-Drivers Win Tournament

Under the coaching of Miss Ina Fletcher, the Varsity Volleyball team enjoyed a winning season. The team's final record was five wins and three losses. To climax the season, the girls took first place in the AWPENYS' tournament, defeating Levittown, Valley Stream North, Roosevelt, and Mepham in order to accomplish this fine achievement. In addition to the varsity team, an intramural program was also offered, and all the girls enjoyed themselves.

Girls' Hoopsters Top Faculty

The Varsity Basketball team, coached by Mrs. Janice Mauro, had a fine season. Although the girls did not have a winning record, due largely to their lack of experience, they improved each time that they played. In addition to the regular schedule, the varsity played against the woman's faculty team at the A.F.S. Student-Faculty Night. It was a hard-fought game, but the girls stayed on top all the way and won, 23-19. All in all, the season was an extremely rewarding one for the members of the team.

Bowlers Enjoy Successful Season

Under the direction of Mrs. Mauro, the twenty-five girls participating in bowling enjoyed an active and successful season. They met once a week at Baldwin Modern Alleys and as the season drew to a close the girls were averaging about 150. The team managers for bowling were Liz Levin and Pam Monack.

Rockettes Perform at Games

The Baldwin High School Rockettes met every Saturday, September through February, from 9:00 A.M. to 11:00 A.M. They went through their paces under the supervision of Mrs. Joy Dick. The girls performed during the halftime at home varsity basketball games. The Rockettes were led by co-captains Carol Wirth and Marsha Dousman, who also made up the dance routines.

Gymnasts Compete in AAU Meet

Participation in gymnastics is one of the largest and most widely enjoyed activities in the Girls' Physical Education Department. In addition to general participation, twenty girls are selected on the basis of ability in many phases of gymnastics to be members of the Gymnastics Club. These girls competed this year in five meets sponsored by the Amateur Athletic Union. They were also active in Intramural Night, either in class or individual competition.

Dancers Learn Expression

The Modern Dance Club was organized this year under the new leadership of Miss Barbara Ellison of the English Department. Twelve girls were chosen from each class, and the group studied the movements and expression of modern dance. They competed in Intramural Night, and most of the girls went on to participate in modern dance for Sportsnite.

Girls' Week

Blue Team Captains Joanne Qualey and Pat Pearce.

GIRLS' WEEK 1965 was an important part in the lives of many girls this spring. Under the direction of Miss Marie Jensen and Mistress of Ceremonies Lenora Bell, it took form during the many weeks of preparation and became a week held high in the hearts of Blue and Gold.

The jolly hobos of Blue's "That Happy Feeling" and the dazzling gypsies of Gold's "Golden Earrings" sparked the entrances that were so enjoyed by both the girls and the Sportsnite audience. Who will soon forget H-E-L-L-O and "High Hopes" or "Rose-Marie" and the dancing teddy bears?

Although one team was victorious, for the girls of both teams Girls' Week was a rewarding experience. Each team developed a spirit that will not soon be forgotten. The unity and harmony, and above all, the friendships that Blue and Gold found in this Girls' Week will always be treasured.

The Class of '65 has successfully organized and carried out numerous activities throughout its three years at Baldwin High School.

This year has advanced at a feverish pace as seniors have become involved in many worthwhile efforts depending upon their interests and abilities. The Senior Class Play and the Variety Show highlighted the Fall season, and both were enthusiastically received by the entire student body, as was the Halloween Dance, "Bewitched." During the months of October and November, seniors tested their magazine salesmanship abilities while enlarging the class treasury to finance the Senior trip, yearbook, prom at Carl Hoppl's, and caps and gowns for graduation. Several class meetings were held to encourage support and participation in Senior Class projects.

During its junior year, the Class of '65 sold Christmas wreaths and candy and held a very successful prom under the leadership of President Paul Sacco and Vice President Joe Tomaselli.

As sophomores, members of the Class of '65 began to adjust to high school life under the capable guidance of Mr. John Sheaff, who was joined as class advisor by Mrs. Roberta Schwartz in 1964. Both have devoted much time and effort to class endeavors.

Seniors are grateful to the officers of '65, President Warren Pallatto, Vice President Debby Cook, Secretary Kris Verni, and Treasurer Candy Peters, for assuming the responsibilities involved in leading the class in all its endeavors.

Members of the Senior Class Council are: First Row, left to right, R. Sigillo, C. Peters, D. Cook, W. Pallatto, K. Verni, P. Shoemaker, L. Martin. Second Row, R. Vielbig, G. Breitweiser, T. Falcone, K. Gedeon, L. Rheingold, J. Aitken, R. Iandiorio, D. Rothstein, S. Klein, D. Ballweg. Third Row, R. Dabby, D. Brennan, N. Silberberg, P. Sacco, D. Brightman.

At Work and Play

Cinderellas and Prince Charmings prepare for the "Bewitched" hour.

Rollers and slacks gone, streamers up, Seniors dance to the music of Ramsey Dabby's band at the Halloween Dance, "Bewitched."

Senior

"Come Alive in '65"

The Take Fours, left to right, D. Schecher, D. Brightman, G. Janaro, B. Johnson.

"Come Alive in '65" demonstrated the variety of talent in the Senior Class. The show, produced by Tony Falcone and Pamela Frazer, was enlivened by the witty remarks of Mark Cerkovnik, emcee. The program was comprised of a large number of skits ranging from singing, dancing and instrumental arrangements to clever comic scenes. Photographer Gary Miller and assistants prepared a very successful movie depicting life at BHS. The Variety Show required much hard work and strenuous effort, but the results were surely worthwhile.

M. Johnson and D. Olsen.

"Now, do it right this time or I'll break the other one!"

Action

R. Atkin and J. Bush.

Seniors Present "Anastasia"

A hard-working group of seniors presented "Anastasia" as one of this year's dramatic efforts. Joy Bush and Howard Adler played the leading roles under the excellent direction of Mr. Alfred Schimmel. The rehearsals were frequent and time-consuming, but the two successful performances of the serious drama were warmly received by those who attended. The presentation of "Anastasia" is an example of the eager participation of a group of students in a function to be enjoyed by the student body.

Mr. John Sheaff

Mrs. Roberta Schwartz

Thanks to Two Devoted People

Mrs. Schwartz and Mr. Sheaff listen attentively as President Warren Pallatto addresses one of many class meetings.

To be a class advisor is to give aid, to be present when help is desperately needed, to give earnestly of oneself, and to bring to a peak the hard work and determination of the members of the class. Advising a senior class demands all these qualities and more. The advisors to the Class of 1965 have been excellent examples of the type of devotion needed to advise a senior class.

Mr. John Sheaff and Mrs. Roberta Schwartz worked many long hours on the various class projects. The first endeavor of the year was the magazine sale, which was followed by "Bewitched," the Senior Class Dance. Both events were successful because of the fine planning of the advisors. Many evenings would find Mr. Sheaff in Room 533 poring over the problems, ideas, and finances of the Senior Class. Mrs. Schwartz, affectionately known as "Puff," not only worked hard on senior problems in general, but could always be counted on to give advice and guidance to individuals.

The senior advisors made possible this year's class trip, which otherwise would have been cancelled. They spent many hours driving back and forth to upstate New York to find a place that would accommodate 647 students. They also convinced the administration of the necessity of having the Senior Prom out of school. The experience and devotion of Mr. Sheaff and Mrs. Schwartz made these two wonderful people indispensable as advisors to the Class of 1965.

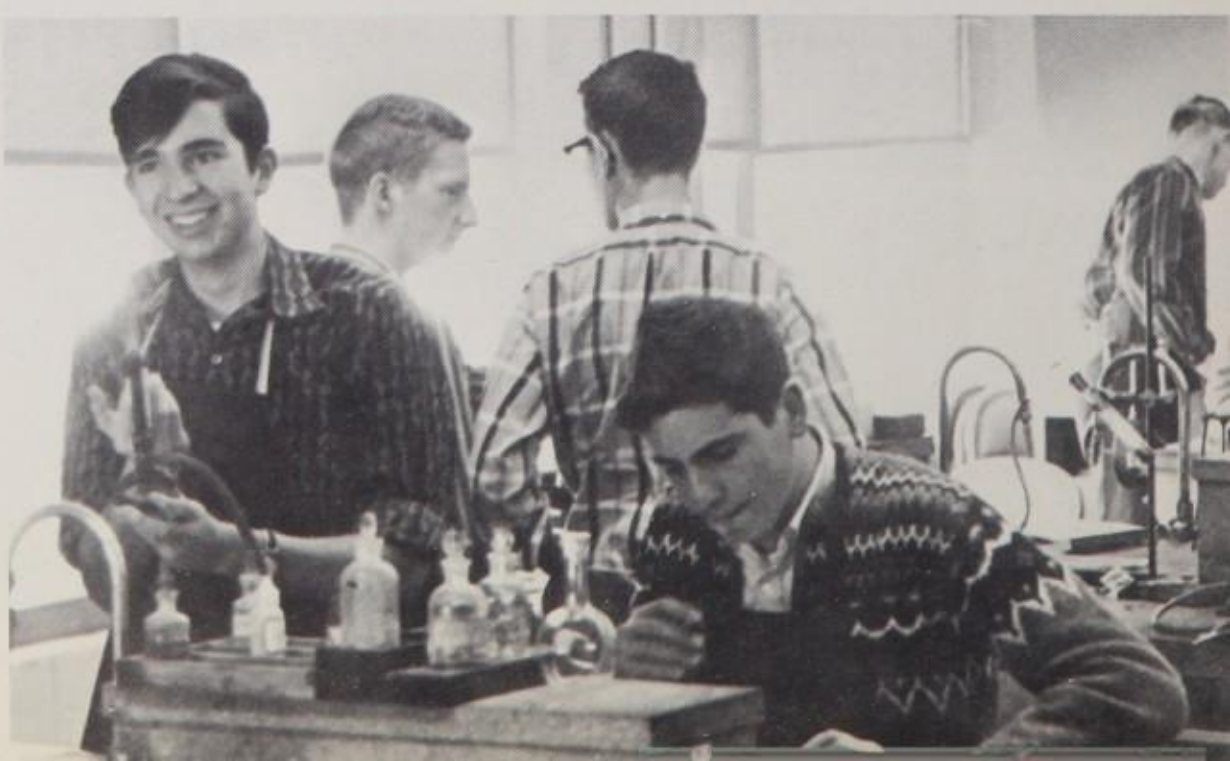
The tense crowd in the bleechers . . .

A study hall in the Commons . . .

Science lab . . .



The luxuriant sun between classes . . .

Rushing out after a basketball game on a rain-soaked night and ambling between classes on a beautiful spring day. Sitting in the Commons study hall first period Monday morning and straining with the team for that final touchdown. Diabolically mixing chemicals in the fourth building and making sure building six goes up properly. Waiting for the teacher to return the all-important test and not doing your homework because of the T.V. show you just had to watch. You played all these roles. You lived all of these contrasts. You have all of these memories. You were the high school senior.

Looking to the future . . .

The end of an evening or a year at B.H.S.
